

Activity Sheet 1.7

Mark Pugash Interview - General Questions

What are the major problems facing the Kent police?

What problems are specific to being in Kent?

What issues do the police deal with concerning refugees and asylum seekers?

What methods are they using to overcome their problems?

How effective do you think the police are likely to be with these approaches?

Do you think the police will ever be able to solve all of these problems completely?

What issues are outside police control?

What else would be needed apart from police action to solve these problems?