

Acid rain

Look at the diagram below, which shows the causes and effects of acid rain.
Complete the diagram by writing each of the following labels in the correct place:

- Trees and other vegetation are damaged and may die
- Acid rain falls to the ground
- Stone buildings are corroded
- Power stations, factories and cars cause pollution
- Acid-polluted air carried by the wind
- Sustainable development ...
- Water droplets in the clouds become polluted
- Gases like sulphur dioxide rise into the atmosphere
- Fossil fuels are ...
- Water and soil become polluted
- Acid rain is ...
- Coal, oil and natural gas ...

- ... rainwater containing chemicals that result from the burning of fossil fuels.
- ... improves people's quality of life without damaging the environment.
- ... the remains of plants and animals that lived many years ago.
- ... are three types of fossil fuel.