

What is the UK's climate?

- 1 Tick true or false for each of these statements:
- The place with the highest temperature is Plymouth.
 - The place with the lowest temperature is Aberdeen.
 - In summer the north is warmer than the south.
 - In summer the south is warmer than the north.
 - In winter the west is colder than the east.
 - In winter, the east is colder than the west.
 - The west is wetter than the east.
 - The east is much drier than the west.

True	False

- 2 Describe the different climates of the UK by writing each of the following in the correct places. One has been done for you.

North west

- Mild summers
- Mild winters
- Wet

North east

- _____
- _____
- _____

South west

- _____
- _____
- _____

South east

- _____
- _____
- _____

- Mild summers
- Mild winters
- Cold winters
- Warm summers
- Cold winters
- Dry
- Quite wet
- Warm summers
- Dry